HILL FOR CONGRESS.

Something of His Life and His Qualifications.

E. P. Hill, of South McAlester, one of the best known Democrats in the Indian Territory, and a lawyer of prominence and ripe experience, announces that he will be a candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

Mr. Hill was born in Troup county, Georgia, on December 19, 1861, and is a nephew of the late Ben Hill, the distinguished Georgia statesman. Mr. Hill's father was a confederate soldier, and while his father was in the army, his mother moved to Texas with the children, settling in Harrison county, near Marshall. He was educated there, attending the neighborhood schools at such times of the year as he could.

In January, 1884, imbued with the spirit of many young men of that time, he went west, and located in Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas. Soon after his removal there, he and Joe Bailey, the present junior United States Senator from Texas, who was a young man just from Mississippi, started out to practice law together, and the partnership thus formed lasted for several years.

In the famous Hogg and Clark campaign for governor, Mr. Hill actively supported Hogg, and was made a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas as a friend and representative of that gentleman. In 1894 he was appointed one of the Assistant Attorney Generals of Texas, and served during the administration of Governor Chas. A. Culberson, now the senior United States Senator from Texas.

In 1900, Mr. Hill was chosen chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth Congressional District of Texas, and was sent to the National Democratic convention at Kansas City as a Bryan supporter, and afterwards advocated his election from the stump.

After a residence of more than thirty years in Texas, seventeen of which were spent in Gainesville, Cooke county, Mr. Hill came to the Indian Territory in 1901, and has lived here ever since. He soon took high rank as a lawyer and by his upright, Christian life as a man, has inspired the confidence and esteem of his home people.

Since his advent here he has been actively identified with the Democratic party, serving during the recent campaign as a representative from the Fourth Congressional District on the State Democratic Campaign Committee of which Hon. Jesse Dunn was chairman. As a member of that committee, Mr. Hill advocated and voted for the resolution adopted providing for the election of constitutional delegates by direct vote in a primary, and assisted in the preparation of the declaration of principles submitted by the committee as a platform for the Democratic candidates for election as delegates to the Constitutional Convention. He attended every meeting of that committee, and made many speeches in behalf of the Democratic candidates throughout the Territory, giving his time and contributing of his modest means toward the success of his party. While a member of that committee, Mr. Hill refused to consider any suggestion as to his becoming a candidate for any office, believing with the entire membership of that committee, that the best hope of free government in our new state lay in the supremacy of the Democratic party, and that in the first battle, which meant so much to our people, it was the duty of every loyal Democrat to sink whatever personal ambition he might have, and strive faithfully for the triumph of his party.

After the election the affairs of the campaign committee were wound up, and Hon. Jesse Dunn, whose labors as chairman had contributed so much to the success of the party, resigned, and Hon. J. B. Thompson of Pauls Valley was elected as his successor. Desiring and integrity of Edward P. Hill, both as a lawyer and as a man. Mr. Hill lived for many years in Gainesville, came here in January 1884, when he was just 21 years of age, and removed from Gainesville to Indian Territory in 1901. As a young man Mr. Hill soon became one of the leaders of this bar and through his seventeen years residence here he sustained his reputation as a lawyer of pre-eminent ability. His legal attainments were recognized in 1894 by his appointment as assistant attorney general of Texas, a position which he filled with signal ability for four years. Mr. Hill was a valuable citizen of Cooke county and well and favorably known, not only in this immediate section of the state, but throughout the state. We notice that Mr. Hill is a candidate for Congress in the new state of Oklahoma. He is well fitted for such a position and will bring credit upon himself and the office, if selected. The Gainesville Bar and this community will take pride in the success of our former townsman and co-laborer.

There are two Democratic papers published in Gainesville, Texas, Mr. Hill's old home. Both of these papers have been under the same management for many years. The proprietors have been personally acquainted with Mr. Hill since his boyhood, and voluntarily make the following mention of his candidacy for Congress:

"The Hesperian notices that Hon. E. P. Hill, of South McAlester, I. T., is a candidate for congress from the Fourth Congressional District in the new state.

to become a candidate for Congress, and the Democratic party having overwhelmingly triumphed at the polls, Mr. Hill tendered his resignation and in reply thereto received the following letter from Mr. Thompson:

Headquarters Oklahoma Democratic Committee.

Pauls Valley, Feb. 6, 1907.
Hon. E. P. Hill,
South McAlester, I. T.

My Dear Ed—
I am in receipt of yours of the 4th inst., and desire to thank you for the letter, and to express my sincere regrets at your resignation from the State Committee. On account of your valuable experience and long service in this capacity in Texas prior to your removal to the Indian Territory, and since your removal here, and the great interest you have always manifested in the party, your services are almost invaluable, and your association has been most pleasant and your advice most profitable. I want you to know that you carry with you, in your retirement from the committee, my very highest confidence, and I also wish to assure you of my sincere and earnest wishes for your success in the future.

With my kindest regards, I beg to remain,
Very truly your friend,
J. B. Thompson,
Chairman.

The lawyers of Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas, among whom Mr. Hill lived for many years before coming to the Indian Territory, give him the following testimonial:

Gainesville, Tex., Jan. 29, 1907.
We, the undersigned members of the bar of Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas, are pleased to testify to the capacity and integrity of Edward P. Hill, both as a lawyer and as a man. Mr. Hill lived for many years in Gainesville, came here in January 1884, when he was just 21 years of age, and removed from Gainesville to Indian Territory in 1901. As a young man Mr. Hill soon became one of the leaders of this bar and through his seventeen years residence here he sustained his reputation as a lawyer of pre-eminent ability. His legal attainments were recognized in 1894 by his appointment as assistant attorney general of Texas, a position which he filled with signal ability for four years. Mr. Hill was a valuable citizen of Cooke county and well and favorably known, not only in this immediate section of the state, but throughout the state. We notice that Mr. Hill is a candidate for Congress in the new state of Oklahoma. He is well fitted for such a position and will bring credit upon himself and the office, if selected. The Gainesville Bar and this community will take pride in the success of our former townsman and co-laborer.

"Mr. Hill is a man of high character and integrity, well versed in public affairs, of unswerving fidelity to Democratic principles, and the people of Gainesville and Cooke county, among whom he lived for so many years, commend him to the people of his district as a man worthy of their confidence and support."

"Ed P. Hill of McAlester is a candidate for congress from the Fourth Oklahoma Congressional District, and stands an excellent chance for election. He runs on the Democratic ticket."

"Mr. Hill was a resident of this city for twenty years or more and was one of our leading citizens and attorneys. He filled several offices of public trust while a citizen here with honor to himself and credit to those who elect him. He served as city attorney some time, also as assistant co-

For Justice of the Peace.

Captain W. H. Fisher has authorized The News to announce him for justice of the peace in Ada township, subject to the action of the Democratic primary May 23.

The Captain was raised in Dallas, Texas, where he spent the greater portion of his fifty-eight years. Nine years ago he came to the territory; four years ago he came to Ada where he has been continuously engaged in contracting and building. Capt. Fisher is a life long Democrat; a loyal veteran of the confederacy—last year was commander W. L. Byrd Camp, U. C. V.; an exemplary citizen; a thoroughly conscientious man in all his dealings—such a man as would give universal satisfaction in the office of justice of the peace.

For the United States Senate from the Oklahoma side of the state, subject to the decision of the Democratic primaries on May 23, 1907.

In Mayor's Court.

Johnson Gift was up charged with being drunk. His fine of $7.75 was paid. Edmund Hazelwood, the boy from North Ada, who has been laying out a 73-4 day fine for jumping on moving trains, was released this morning after having served 53-4 days of his sentence, and paid $2.00 in cash fine.

Those Township Officers.

Some misunderstanding has prevailed in this section regarding the officers to be elected in townships or precincts.

Here is the straight of it. In each precinct—properly called municipal township, following the Oklahoma law—there are to be elected two justices of the peace, two constables, a township treasurer, a township assessor or trustee and a clerk. This, regardless of whether there is a town in the township.

Moreover under Oklahoma law cities of over 2,500 population are classified as cities of the first class and are entitled to a distinct township organization—two justices, two constables and an assessor. Accordingly after Ada becomes a city of the first class there will be a set of these officers for the city and another set for the Ada country township surrounding.

PERIOD OF POLITICS.

This paper contains a good deal of political matter these days.

It ought to. These are times when all patriotic people in this country should be interested in organizing the new state government; should be interested in the adoption of the constitution, in the men and their qualifications who are offering for office, all the way from the governorship down to township trustee.

The newspaper is the best agency of enlightenment in such matters. In a heavy period of politics like this political news of necessity predominates in the paper. Some may not relish so much of it, but for awhile they must defer to those who do.

The columns of the other papers also teem with politics. In fact that's about all that is happening and all that people are talking about these days.

You might as well read it and talk it some, otherwise you will be odd and lonesome.

THAT crusade of The Oklahoman against impure milk for the babies is getting as sensational as that one waged by Peter Stirling.

torney for some time. Later he was appointed assistant attorney general by Gen. M. M. Crane, which office he filled ably and creditably.

"The Democrats of the Fourth Oklahoma District could not do a better thing than to send Ed P. Hill to congress. He is able, honorable and true as steel. His district includes Ardmore, Marietta, Sulphur and many other cities which have hundreds of former Texans as citizens, and the Register hopes to see all these 'line up' for him. If nominated he will be elected and he will be an honor to the new state of Oklahoma."—Gainesville Register.

HIS PLATFORM.

Mr. Hill submits the following declaration of principles, being the lines along which he will make his campaign for congress. He introduces some new questions into this campaign which he courageously advocates because he considers their solution vital to the welfare of the people of this district.

To the Democracy of the Fourth Congressional District:

As I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from this district, I deem it proper to give a brief statement of my views upon questions affecting the people of this district, and the solution of which will have to be determined by congress.

Disposing of national questions as issues upon which there is substantial concurrence among party Democrats, and turning to the questions which, because of our environment, I conceive to be of peculiar and vital interest and importance to this district and the Indian Territory part of the new state, I submit:

First.—Of its own volition and by its own act the Federal government has decreed the dissolution of the tribal status of the Indians of Indian Territory, and in 1901 invested the individuals of the several tribes with the full rights of citizenship. If elected to congress I shall insist that the Federal government execute to the full the obligation it assumed by surrendering absolutely and at once its supervisory control of citizenship to the state, and wherever possible its jurisdiction over property rights. I shall insist that the eighty thousand enrolled Indians thus citizenized, and who own practically all of the lands in the Indian Territory, save the town-sites, shall be turned loose by the Federal government, subject to no control or supervision, save that of the state of which they are an integral part. I shall maintain that having been invested with citizenship the Indian is entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizenship guaranteed by the Federal constitution equally with the Caucasian, just as he is expected and must assume and sustain all of its responsibilities and penalties. I hold that the perpetuation of Federal control or supervision over so large a part of our citizenship or property is subversive of the republican principles upon which our government is founded, unjust and calamitous to the Indian, and perilous to every interest of the state.

If any portion of our citizenship is incompetent to manage their own business affairs, I favor having this matter regulated by state laws giving the probate courts of our counties jurisdiction to determine this matter, thus superseding the arbitrary, inequitable and unreliable system now employed. Our own people understand conditions better than people who live in New England and other sections of the United States.

It is a notorious fact that hundreds if not thousands of the mixed blood have been entered on the rolls of the Commission as Indians of the full blood. Many of these are as capable as any other American citizen of conducting business affairs successfully, and naturally and rightfully resent the paternalistic intervention of the Federal government in their private affairs—an intervention which is based, at best, upon long range information that is always unreliable, and attended by action unconscionably delayed by red-tape methods.

Second.—I favor the immediate sale of what is commonly known as the "Segregated coal and asphalt lands," throughout the segregated district, but I am opposed to such sale to a corporation of any kind, particularly to a railroad corporation. With such possible purchasers excluded, such a sale could be made only to the Federal government or to the state of Oklahoma. Accordingly, if elected, I shall favor congressional action authorizing the sale of said lands to the state of Oklahoma at a fair and reasonable valuation to be determined by a commission representing primarily the interests of the Indians who are the owners of the land, the state of Oklahoma, the prospective purchaser, and the Federal government which exercises supervisory control, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized. I favor the state purchasing these lands as a school fund for the education of the children of this state. The sale of the surface and the royalties from the mines would create a splendid fund for the education of the children. If it should be determined within a reasonable time that the state will not buy these lands, I favor, and will urge, congressional action providing for the sale of the surface in tracts not exceeding 160 acres to actual settlers, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized.

Third.—I believe that the prosperity of the citizenship of this district, Caucasian as well as Indian, depends upon the development of our lands which are rich in agricultural possibilities. Inalienable under present law, this land is largely non-productive, either to the Indian as a source of revenue, or to the state as a taxable asset. The settlement and cultivation of this vast area will remain impossible and barren of revenue to the Indian and taxes to the state until the Federal restrictions are removed so that actual settlers can buy homes and construct permanent citizenship.

When the restrictions with which the property contributes its just share towards the support of the government, there will be an immediate increase in the value of all the property, and the settlement and development of our country will be rapid. But just so long as the Federal government shall maintain jurisdiction over our property and the present unequal and unjust conditions shall prevail, the support of county and state governments will be burdensome, and homeseekers will continue to pass through our section of the state bound for other places which do not offer so much in the way of natural advantages. I favor breaking the shackles which bind the property and citizenship of this country, and giving to our people the opportunity to develop the splendid natural resources which are around us, and the making of our new state one of the best, richest and most prosperous in the Union.

Fourth.—The Federal government now holds on deposit large sums of money to the credit of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, and these large sums will be presently augmented by other larger sums.

I favor the immediate and complete settlement of these business affairs between the Federal government and the Indians; the discharge of this trust by the government by the payment to the Indians of the last dollar due them. The Indian's present needs and necessities are infinitely more pressing than they are likely to be at any time in the future and I know of no good reason why the Indian now living should not participate in the distribution of these funds.

"This money belongs to the Indians. It is doing them no good as it is." The Federal government is constantly finding excuses to spend large sums of it, as for example the hiring of a special train to deliver patents. To distribute this money to the Indians now will be helpful to them and to the country, and if elected I shall favor congressional action requiring this to be done.

Fifth.—I regard the congressman as the most important officer the people of this district will be called upon to vote for at the coming election. We enter statehood with the Federal government maintaining jurisdiction over most of the property in our district, and with conditions confronting our people the solution of which are vital to our welfare. Congressional action alone can bring relief. However wise and just our state officers may be, they will be powerless to change the conditions here, and our people in this district must look to their representative in Congress. I believe that the people of our new state are just as patriotic and intelligent as the people of any other state of this union, and so believing, I shall insist, if I am your representative, that the hand of despotism be removed, and that the sovereign people of the sovereign state of Oklahoma be accorded the same rights as the people of every other state of this Union, viz: The right to regulate and control their own internal affairs.

In conclusion, my fellow citizens, I pledge myself, if elected, to the exercise of whatever of faculties or ability I possess in the service of the people of this district and the new state. I believe that I have full appreciation of the duties and responsibilities that will devolve upon your representative in congress, and I know that I am inspired by no other ambition than to serve this people acceptably, and contribute my utmost to the development and upbuilding of the state of my adoption, and which I verily believe is destined to become, within the next two decades, one of the very greatest of the American Union. A vast amount of work will devolve upon your first representative in congress. Federal buildings and internal improvements of various kinds, chargeable against the Federal government, must be provided. I do not assert an ability over my competitors to secure these things, but I do assure you that you can elect no one who will strive more faithfully and conscientiously to serve you.

If you approve the policies outlined, upon which I will make this race, I will thank you for your support, and will endeavor to bring to my people some substantial relief. Respectfully,
E. P. HILL.

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE.

Chambers of Atoka Announces for the Honor in the 7th.

Hon. James H. Chambers, of Atoka, who seeks the Democratic nomination for district judge in this the Seventh Judicial district, is a native of Collin county, Texas.

There born in 1870, he received his education in the neighborhood schools and in Grayson college where, finishing a four years' course, he graduated in 1893. After beginning a law course in the University of Texas Mr. Chambers, before its completion, was compelled to return home to care for his widowed mother and her farm. In 1895 he removed to the Territory and located in Atoka where he has since continuously resided and practiced law.

James H. Chambers early evinced an interest in affairs political. A delegate to that famous Hogg-Clark convention at Houston, he was an enthusiastic supporter of Hogg throughout; and he was a delegate in the convention at Dallas which nominated Chas. A. Culberson for governor. Since becoming a resident of the Territory he has been an ardent worker for every good thing for his home town and for the embryo commonwealth at large. Having been secretary and president of the Atoka commercial club, member of the city council, and of the school board, in those positions he made a splendid record as a public spirited town builder.

For years he has been prominent in the councils of his party; was the first president of the Atoka Democratic club; was a delegate to the Ardmore and Durant Territorial conventions; is now a member of the State Democratic executive committee.

Nominated the Democratic candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention in a district outrageously gerrymandered and conceded to be Republican, yet such was the vigorous campaign Mr. Chambers waged that he was elected over a strong opponent by 243 majority. In the convention he readily took rank as a leading figure, and he labored untiringly and effectively to make the constitution the great guaranty of the people's rights that it is.

Jas. H. Chambers at home and abroad ranks as a sound, strong lawyer. He possesses to a marked degree the calm, deliberate, judicial mind. A lawyer of high standing, a man beloved of his neighbors, a thorough going Christian gentleman, a faithful worker in his party, Mr. Chambers, on the bench, would reflect credit upon the constituent counties which chose him.

GOOD BLOOD CLEANSER

Mix one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take in teaspoonful doses after your meals and at bedtime. Also drink plenty of good pure water.

These ingredients can be obtained from any good drug store, and are easily mixed by shaking in a bottle. This is said to be the simplest though safest and most powerful mixture known to purify the blood and rid the system of acids and other waste matter, which produce skin eruptions, sores, boils and other diseases.

It is recommended very highly in all Kidney and Bladder afflictions, overcoming the most chronic urinary difficulties. Now is the time to take it if you wish to insure good, sound health all summer.

DEAN FOR STATE SENATOR.

Something of His Career and His Qualifications.

The News has been authorized to announce J. W. Dean, a prominent attorney of Ada, for the State Senate in Twenty-third district, composed of Pontotoc and Seminole counties. He is so well known as a worker in the local party organization that it is scarcely necessary to add his candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

J. W. Dean was born and reared on his father's farm in that old historic county of Red River, State of Texas, where he attended the common schools of the neighborhood. Later two years of employment as salesman and book-keeper were sandwiched with a course in a normal school at Cooper, Texas. Entering the University of Texas in 1901, he graduated in law in the summer of 1903. Attracted by the opportunities offered young men in the New Southwest, Mr. Dean came straightway to Ada where he formed a law partnership with B. H. Epperson and has since continuously practiced his profession.

Through his faithful attention to business, his studious habits, his uniform course, as a good citizen, he has achieved an enviable standing among the professional men of the city.

Ever interested in the progress of his home town, for a long time he has held the position of secretary for the Ada commercial club. When congress was legislating for the Territories, looking to the changes statehood involves, Mr. Dean was chosen to go to Washington as a representative of Ada to look after her interests in pending legislation.

Ever since he has been old enough Mr. Dean has taken a deep interest in political affairs; he is a thorough student of questions of government, and is a firm believer in Democratic principles as the basis for the sort of government under which the people may most prosper. He has opinions on statecraft and a gifted tongue where-with to proclaim them. He has taken an active part in the organization of his party in this section. Before the transition to a county organization, Mr. Dean was the efficient secretary of the Democratic central committee of the Sixteenth recording district.

If chosen state senator from this district, Mr. Dean pledges himself to his talents and his utmost energies to the legislative work, to the end that he may reflect credit upon his constituents.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

Ordinance No. 128.

An ordinance safeguarding the crossings of the railroad tracks in the city of Ada.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Ada, Indian Territory.

Section 1. That on and after the 15th day of June, 1907, it shall be unlawful for any railroad company to propel any of its engines, cars or trains across any of the hereinafter named street crossings within the incorporated limits of the said city of Ada, between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., without first having given the danger signal at least three minutes before the said train, cars, or engines, shall cross or attempt to cross any of the hereinafter named streets.

Section 2. That the said danger signal shall be given by waving a lantern or other light, at the said crossing of said streets, for the length of time aforesaid. That the said street crossings at which said signal shall be required to be given shall be on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad where the same crosses East Main street and East Ninth street; and on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad where the same crosses West Main street, North Townsend avenue and North Broadway avenue, all of the said city of Ada, Indian Territory. That any engineer, fireman, conductor or brakeman who shall run or cause to be run, any train, cars, or engines across any of the aforesaid street crossings without first having given the danger signal above set out, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before the mayor shall be fined in any sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

Section 3. That in lieu of said danger signal, the said railroad companies shall have the right and privileges of erecting over the said street crossings, an arc light, such as is in use in the streets of the city of Ada, over the said streets' crossings. That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its publication and passage, and the date set out above, to-wit: the 15th day of June, A. D. 1907.

Passed this 15th day of April, A. D. 1907. C. O. Barton, Mayor. Attest: Jesse Warren, City Recorder. Published in the Ada News on the 17th day of April, 1907.

HILL FOR CONGRESS.

Something of His Life and His Qualifications.

E. P. Hill, of South McAlester one of the best known Democrats in the Indian Territory, and a lawyer of prominence and ripe experience announces that he will be a candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Mr. Hill was born in Troup county, Georgia on December 19, 1861 and is a nephew of the late Ben Hill, the distinguished Georgia statesman. Mr. Hill's father was a Confederate soldier and while his father was in the army, his mother moved to Texas with the children settling in Harrison county, near Marshall. He was educated there attending the neighborhood schools at such times as the father could.

In January, 1884 imbued with the spirit of many young men of that time

he went west, and located in Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas. Soon after his removal there, he and Joe Bailey, the present junior United States Senator from Texas who was a young man just from Mississippi, started out to practice law together and the partnership thus formed lasted for several years.

In the famous Hogg and Clark campaign for governor, Mr. Hill actively supported Hogg, and was made a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas as a friend and representative of that gentleman. In 1894 he was appointed one of the Assistant Attorney Generals of Texas, and served during the administration of Governor Chas. A. Culberson now the senior United States Senator from Texas.

In 1900 Mr. Hill was chosen chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth Congressional District of Texas, and was sent to the National Democratic convention at Kansas City as a Bryan supporter, and afterwards advocated his election from the stump.

After a residence of more than thirty years in Texas, seventeen of which were spent in Gainesville, Cooke county, Mr. Hill came to the Indian Territory in 1901, and has lived here ever since. He soon took high rank as a lawyer and by his upright, Christian life as a man, has inspired the confidence and esteem of his home people.

Since his advent here he has been actively identified with the Democratic party, serving during the recent campaign as a representative from the Fourth Congressional District on the State Democratic Campaign Committee of which Hon. Jesse Dunn was chairman. As a member of that committee, Mr. Hill advocated and voted for the resolution adopted providing for the election of constitutional delegates by direct vote in a primary, and assisted in the preparation of the declaration of principles submitted by the committee as a platform for the Democratic candidates for election as delegates to the Constitutional Convention. He attended every meeting of that committee, and made many speeches in behalf of the Democratic candidates throughout the Territory, giving his time and contributing of his modest means toward the success of his party. While a member of that committee, Mr. Hill refused to consider any suggestion as to his becoming a candidate for any office, believing with the entire membership of that committee, that the best hope of free government in our new state lay in the supremacy of the Democratic party, and that in the first battle, which meant so much to our people it was the duty of every loyal Democrat to sink whatever personal ambition he might have, and strive faithfully for the triumph of his party.

After the election the affairs of the campaign committee were wound up, and Hon. Jesse Dunn, whose labors as chairman had contributed so much to the success of the party, resigned, and Hon. J. B. Thompson of Pauls Valley was elected as his successor. During and integrity of Edward P. Hill, both as a lawyer and as a man. Mr. Hill lived for many years in Gainesville, Texas, where he came here in January, 1884, when he was just 21 years of age, and removed from Gainesville to Indian Territory in 1901. As a young man Mr. Hill soon became one of the leaders of this bar and through his seventeen years residence here he sustained his reputation as a lawyer of pre-eminent ability. His legal attainments were recognized in 1894 by his appointment as assistant attorney general of Texas, a position which he filled with signal ability for four years. Mr. Hill was a valuable citizen of Cooke county and well and favorably known, not only in this immediate section of the state, but throughout the state. We notice that Mr. Hill is a candidate for Congress in the new state of Oklahoma. He is well fitted for such a position and will bring credit upon himself and the office, if selected. The Gainesville Bar and this community will take pride in the success of our former townsman and co-laborer.

Headquarters Oklahoma Democratic Committee
Pauls Valley, Feb. 6, 1907
Hon. E. P. Hill,
South McAlester, I. T.

My Dear Sir:
I am in receipt of yours of the 11th inst., and desire to thank you for the letter, and to express my sincere regrets at your resignation from the State Committee. On account of your valuable experience and long service in this capacity in Texas prior to your removal to the Indian Territory, and since your removal here, and the great interest you have always manifested in the party, your services are almost invaluable and your association has been most pleasant and your advice most profitable. I want you to know that you carry with you, in your retirement from the committee, my very highest confidence, and I also wish to assure you of my sincere and earnest wishes for your success in the future. With my kindest regards, I beg to remain,

Very truly your friend,
J. B. Thompson,
Chairman

The lawyers of Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas, among whom Mr. Hill lived for many years before coming to the Indian Territory, give him the following testimonial:

Gainesville, Tex., Jan. 29, 1907.
We, the undersigned members of the bar of Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas, are pleased to testify to the capacity and integrity of Edward P. Hill, both as a lawyer and as a man. Mr. Hill lived for many years in Gainesville, Texas, where he came here in January, 1884, when he was just 21 years of age, and removed from Gainesville to Indian Territory in 1901. As a young man Mr. Hill soon became one of the leaders of this bar and through his seventeen years residence here he sustained his reputation as a lawyer of pre-eminent ability. His legal attainments were recognized in 1894 by his appointment as assistant attorney general of Texas, a position which he filled with signal ability for four years. Mr. Hill was a valuable citizen of Cooke county and well and favorably known, not only in this immediate section of the state, but throughout the state. We notice that Mr. Hill is a candidate for Congress in the new state of Oklahoma. He is well fitted for such a position and will bring credit upon himself and the office, if selected. The Gainesville Bar and this community will take pride in the success of our former townsman and co-laborer.

Mr. Hill is a man of high character and integrity, well versed in public affairs, of unswerving fidelity to Democratic principles, and the people of Gainesville and Cooke county among whom he lived for so many years, commend him to the people of his district as a man worthy of their confidence and support.

"Ed P. Hill of McAlester is a candidate for congress from the Fourth Oklahoma Congressional District, and stands an excellent chance for election. He runs on the Democratic ticket."

Mr. Hill was a resident of this city for twenty years or more and was one of our leading citizens and attorneys. He filled several offices of public trust while a citizen here with honor to himself and credit to those who elected him. He served as city attorney some time, also as assistant cotorney for some time. Later he was appointed assistant attorney general by Gen. M. Crane, which office he filled ably and creditably.

"The Democrats of the Fourth Oklahoma District could not do a better thing than to send Ed P. Hill to congress. He is able, honorable and true as steel. His district includes Ardmore, Marietta, Sulphur and many other cities which have hundreds of former Texans as citizens, and the Register hopes to see all these "line up" for him. If nominated he will be elected and he will be an honor to the new state of Oklahoma."—Gainesville Register.

HIS PLATFORM.

Mr. Hill submits the following declaration of principles, being the lines along which he will make his campaign for congress. He introduces some new questions into this campaign which he courageously advocates because he considers their solution vital to the welfare of the people of this district.

To the Democracy of the Fourth Congressional District:

As I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from this district, I deem it proper to give a brief statement of my views upon questions affecting the people of this district, and the solution of which will have to be determined by congress.

Disposing of national questions as issues upon which there is substantial concurrence among party Democrats, and turning to the questions which, because of our environment, I conceive to be of peculiar and vital interest and importance to this district and the Indian Territory part of the new state, I submit:

First—Of its own volition and by its own act the Federal government has decreed the dissolution of the tribal status of the Indians of Indian Territory, and in 1901 invested the individuals of the several tribes with the full rights of citizenship. If elected to congress I shall insist that the Federal government execute to the full the obligation it assumed by surrendering absolutely and at once its supervisory control of citizenship to the state, and wherever possible its jurisdiction over property rights. I shall insist that the eighty thousand enrolled Indians thus citizenized, and who own practically all of the lands in the Indian Territory, save the town-sites, shall be turned loose by the Federal government, subject to no control or supervision, save that of the state of which they are an integral part. I shall maintain that having been invested with citizenship the Indian is entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizenship guaranteed by the Federal constitution equally with the Caucasian, just as he is expected and must assume and sustain all of its responsibilities and penalties. I hold that the perpetuation of Federal control or supervision over so large a part of our citizenship or property is subversive of the republican principles upon which our government is founded, unjust and calamitous to the Indian, and perilous to every interest of the state.

If any portion of our citizenship is incompetent to manage their own business affairs, I favor having this matter regulated by state laws giving the probate courts of our counties jurisdiction to determine this matter, thus superceding the arbitrary, inequitable and unreliable system now employed. Our own people understand conditions better than people who live in New England and other sections of the United States.

It is a notorious fact that hundreds if not thousands of the mixed blood have been entered on the rolls of the Commission as Indians of the full blood. Many of these are as capable as any other American citizen of conducting business affairs successfully, and naturally and rightfully resent the paternalistic intervention of the Federal government in their private affairs—an intervention which is based, at best, upon long range information that is always unreliable, and attended by action unreasonably delayed by red-tag methods.

Second—I favor the immediate sale of what is commonly known as the "Segregated coal and asphalt lands," throughout the segregated district, but I am opposed to such sale to a corporation of any kind, particularly to a railroad corporation. With such possible purchasers excluded, such a sale could be made only to the Federal government or to the state of Oklahoma. Accordingly, if elected, I shall favor congressional action authorizing the sale of said lands to the state of Oklahoma at a fair and reasonable valuation to be determined by a commission representing primarily the interests of the Indians who are the owners of the land, the state of Oklahoma, the prospective purchaser, and the Federal government, which exercises supervisory control, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized. I favor the state purchasing these lands as a school fund for the education of the children of this state. The sale of the surface and the royalties from the mines would create a splendid fund for the education of the children. If it should be determined within a reasonable time that the state will not buy these lands, I favor, and will urge, congressional action providing for the sale of the surface in tracts not exceeding 160 acres to actual settlers, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized.

Third—I believe that the prosperity of the citizenship of this district, Caucasian as well as Indian, depends upon the development of our lands which are rich in agricultural possibilities. Inalienable under present law, this land is largely non-productive, either to the Indian as a source of revenue, or to the state as a taxable asset. The settlement and cultivation of this vast area will remain impossible and barren of revenue to the Indian and taxes to the state until the Federal restrictions are removed so that actual settlers can buy homes and construct permanent citizenship.

When the restrictions with which the property contributes its just share towards the support of the government, there will be an immediate increase in the value of all the property, and the settlement and development of our country will be rapid. But just so long as the Federal government shall maintain jurisdiction over our property and the present unequal and unjust conditions shall prevail, the support of county and state governments will be burdensome, and homeseekers will continue to pass through our section of the state bound for other places which do not offer so much in the way of natural advantages. I favor breaking the shackles which bind the property and citizenship of this country, and giving to our people the opportunity to develop the splendid natural resources which are around us, and the making of our new state one of the best, richest and most prosperous in the Union.

Fourth—The Federal government now holds on deposit large sums of money to the credit of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, and these large sums will be presently augmented by other larger sums.

I favor the immediate and complete settlement of these business affairs between the Federal government and the Indians; the discharge of this trust by the government by the payment to the Indians of the last dollar due them. The Indian's present needs and necessities are infinitely more pressing than they are likely to be at any time in the future and I know of no good reason why the Indian now living should not participate in the distribution of these funds.

This money belongs to the Indians. It is doing them no good as it is. The Federal government is constantly finding excuses to spend large sums of it, as for example the hiring of a special train to deliver patents. To distribute this money to the Indians now will be helpful to them and to the country, and if elected I shall favor congressional action requiring this to be done.

Fifth—I regard the congressman as the most important officer the people of this district will be called upon to vote for at the coming election. We enter statehood with the Federal government maintaining jurisdiction over most of the property in our district, and with conditions confronting our people the solution of which are vital to our welfare. Congressional action alone can bring relief. However wise and just our state officers may be, they will be powerless to change the conditions here, and our people in this district must look to their representative in Congress. I believe that the people of our new state are just as patriotic and intelligent as the people of any other state of this union, and so believing, I shall insist, if I am your representative, that the hand of despotism be removed, and that the sovereign people of the sovereign state of Oklahoma be accorded the same rights as the people of every other state of this Union, viz: The right to regulate and control their own internal affairs.

In conclusion, my fellow citizens, I pledge myself, if elected, to the exercise of whatever of faculties or ability I possess in the service of the people of this district and the new state. I believe that I have full appreciation of the duties and responsibilities that will devolve upon your representative in congress, and I know that I am inspired by no other ambition than to serve this people acceptably, and contribute my utmost to the development and upbuilding of the state of my adoption, and which I truly believe is destined to become, within the next two decades, one of the very greatest of the American Union. A vast amount of work will devolve upon your first representative in congress. Federal burdens and internal improvements of various kinds, chargeable against the Federal government, must be provided. I do not assert an ability over my competitors to secure these things, but I do assure you that you can elect no one who will strive more faithfully and conscientiously to serve you.

If you approve the policies outlined, upon which I will make this race, I will thank you for your support, and will endeavor to bring to my people some substantial relief. Respectfully,
E. P. HILL.

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE.

Chambers of Atoka Announces for the Honor in the 7th.

Hon. James H. Chambers, of Atoka, who seeks the Democratic nomination for district judge in this the Seventh Judicial district, is a native of Collins county, Texas.

There born in 1870, he received his education in the neighborhood schools and in Grayson college where, finishing a four years' course, he graduated in 1893. After beginning a law course in the University of Texas Mr. Chambers, before its completion, was compelled to return home to care for his widowed mother and her farm. In 1896 he removed to the Territory and located in Atoka where he has since continuously resided and practiced law.

James H. Chambers early evinced an interest in affairs political. A delegate to that famous Hogg-Clark convention at Houston, he was an enthusiastic supporter of Hogg throughout; and he was a delegate in the convention at Dallas which nominated Chas. A. Culberson for governor. Since becoming a resident of the Territory he has been an ardent worker for every good thing for his home town and for the embryo commonwealth at large. Having been secretary and president of the Atoka commercial club, member of the city council, and of the school board, in those positions he made a splendid record as a public spirited town builder.

For years he has been prominent in the councils of his party; was the first president of the Atoka Democratic club; was a delegate to the Ardmore and Durant Territorial conventions; is now a member of the State Democratic executive committee.

Nominated the Democratic candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention in a district outrageously gerrymandered and conceded to be Republican, yet such was the vigorous campaign Mr. Chambers waged that he was elected over a strong opponent by 213 majority. In the convention he readily took rank as a leading figure, and he labored untiringly and effectively to make the constitution the great guaranty of the people's rights that it is.

Jas. H. Chambers at home and abroad ranks as a sound, strong lawyer. He possesses to a marked degree the calm, deliberate, judicial mind. A lawyer of high standing, a man beloved of his neighbors, a thorough going Christian gentleman, a faithful worker in his party, Mr. Chambers, on the bench, would reflect credit upon the constituent counties which chose him.

For a 15,000 Club.

An effort is being made to organize in Ada a 15,000 club, whose object will be the building up of Ada and social purposes. E. H. Lucas is today circulating a paper, soliciting membership and funds to furnish the club rooms. About forty names have been secured. It is planned to have the club rooms over the Cox-Greer-McDonald store.

GOOD BLOOD CLEANSER

Mix one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Dandelion, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take in teaspoonful doses after your meals and at bedtime. Also drink plenty of good pure water.

These ingredients can be obtained from any good drug store, and are easily mixed by shaking in a bottle. This is said to be the simplest, most safe and most powerful mixture known to purify the blood and rid the system of acids and other waste matter, which produce skin eruptions, sores, boils and other diseases.

It is recommended very highly in all Kidney and Bladder affections, overcoming the most chronic urinary difficulties. Now is the time to take it if you wish to insure good, sound health all summer.

DEAN FOR STATE SENATOR.

Something of His Career and His Qualifications.

The News has been authorized to announce J. W. Dean, a prominent attorney of Ada, for the State Senate in Twenty-third district, composed of Pontotoc and Seminole counties. He is so well known as a worker in the local party organization that it is scarcely necessary to add his candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

J. W. Dean was born and reared on his father's farm in that old historic county of Red River, State of Texas, where he attended the common schools of the neighborhood. Later two years of employment as salesman and book-keeper were sandwiched with a course in a normal school at Cooper, Texas. Entering the University of Texas in 1901, he graduated in law in the summer of 1903. Attracted by the opportunities offered young men in the New Southwest, Mr. Dean came straightway to Ada where he formed a law partnership with B. H. Epperson and has since continuously practiced his profession.

Through his faithful attention to business, his studious habits, his uniform course, as a good citizen, he has achieved an enviable standing among the professional men of the city.

Ever interested in the progress of his home town, for a long time he has held the position of secretary for the Ada commercial club. When congress was legislating for the Territories, looking to the changes statehood involves, Mr. Dean was chosen to go to Washington as a representative of Ada to look after her interests in pending legislation.

Ever since he has been old enough Mr. Dean has taken a deep interest in political affairs; he is a thorough student of questions of government, and is a firm believer in Democratic principles as the basis for the sort of government under which the people may most prosper. He has opinions on statecraft and a gifted tongue where-with to proclaim them. He has taken an active part in the organization of his party in this section. Before the transition to a county organization, Mr. Dean was the efficient secretary of the Democratic central committee of the Sixteenth recording district.

If chosen state senator from this district, Mr. Dean pledges himself to his talents and his utmost energies to the legislative work, to the end that he may reflect credit upon his constituents.

A whizzing, whirling whirlwind of the most sensational Bazaar Battle that the Southwest has ever witnessed opens Saturday. Red Tag Sale.

From Bebee.

Here comes Hustler, but his news is very brief this week.

The Bebee school will close the last of this month.

There were preaching here last Sunday night by Rev. Colwell, who will be back the last night of April and the first two nights of May.

Bebee is improving some now, there is lumber on the ground to build a new bridge.

Mrs. J. J. Goodson is on the pony list this week.

Messrs. W. J. Bumpers and Copeland, of Center, were among this part of the sticks last Sunday.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

Ordinance No. 128.

An ordinance safeguarding the crossings of the railroad tracks in the city of Ada.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Ada, Indian Territory.

Section 1. That on and after the 15th day of June, 1907, it shall be unlawful for any railroad company to propel any of its engines, cars or trains across any of the hereinafter named street crossings within the incorporated limits of the said city of Ada, between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., without first having given the danger signal at least three minutes before the said train, cars, or engines, shall cross or attempt to cross any of the hereinafter named streets.

Section 2. That the said danger signal shall be given by waving a lantern or other light, at the said crossing of said streets, for the length of time aforesaid. That the said street crossings at which said signal shall be required to be given shall be on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad where the same crosses East Main street and East Ninth street; and on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad where the same crosses West Main street, North Townsend avenue and North Broadway avenue, all of the said city of Ada, Indian Territory. That any engineer, fireman, conductor or brakeman who shall run or cause to be run, any train, cars, or engines across any of the aforesaid street crossings without first having given the danger signal above set out, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before the mayor shall be fined in any sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

Section 3. That in lieu of said danger signal, the said railroad companies shall have the right and privileges of erecting over the said street crossings, an arc light, such as is in use in the streets of the city of Ada, over the said streets' crossings. That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its publication and passage, and the date set out above, to-wit: the 15th day of June, A. D. 1907.

Passed this 15th day of April, A. D. 1907. C. O. Barton, Mayor.

Attest: Jesse Warren, City Recorder, Published in the Ada News on the 17th day of April, 1907.

New Maps of Oklahoma.

The News will take your order for a new map of the new state of Oklahoma, showing the county boundary lines and county seats and all postoffices and railroad points, with the population of each. On the reverse side are full county maps of Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, and a complete map of the United States in colored sections. One of these maps should be in every home; it is instructive, helpful, and absolutely necessary to inform you of the correct county division as authorized by the late constitutional convention. HILL FOR CONGRESS.

Something of His Life and His Qualifications.

E. P. Hill, of South McAlester, one of the best known Democrats in the Indian Territory, and a lawyer of prominence and ripe experience, announces that he will be a candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

Mr. Hill was born in Troup county, Georgia, on December 19, 1861, and is a nephew of the late Ben Hill, the distinguished Georgia statesman. Mr. Hill's father was a confederate soldier, and while his father was in the army, his mother moved to Texas with the children, settling in Harrison county, near Marshall. He was educated there, attending the neighborhood schools at such times of the year as he could.

In January, 1884, imbued with the spirit of many young men of that time, he went west, and located in Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas. Soon after his removal there, he and Joe Bailey, the present junior United States Senator from Texas, who was a young man just from Mississippi, started out to practice law together, and the partnership thus formed lasted for several years.

In the famous Hogg and Clark campaign for governor, Mr. Hill actively supported Hogg, and was made a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas as a friend and representative of that gentleman. In 1894 he was appointed one of the Assistant Attorney Generals of Texas, and served during the administration of Governor Chas. A. Culberson, now the senior United States Senator from Texas.

In 1900, Mr. Hill was chosen chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth Congressional District of Texas, and was sent to the National Democratic convention at Kansas City as a Bryan supporter, and afterwards advocated his election from the stump.

After a residence of more than thirty years in Texas, seventeen of which were spent in Gainesville, Cooke county, Mr. Hill came to the Indian Territory in 1901, and has lived here ever since. He soon took high rank as a lawyer and by his upright, Christian life as a man, has inspired the confidence and esteem of his home people.

Since his advent here he has been actively identified with the Democratic party, serving during the recent campaign as a representative from the Fourth Congressional District on the State Democratic Campaign Committee, of which Hon. Jesse Dunn was chairman. As a member of that committee, Mr. Hill advocated and voted for the resolution adopted providing for the election of constitutional delegates by direct vote in a primary, and assisted in the preparation of the declaration of principles submitted by the committee as a platform for the Democratic candidates for election as delegates to the Constitutional Convention. He attended every meeting of that committee, and made many speeches in behalf of the Democratic candidates throughout the Territory, giving his time and contributing of his modest means toward the success of his party. While a member of that committee, Mr. Hill refused to consider any suggestion as to his becoming a candidate for any office, believing with the entire membership of that committee, that the best hope of free government in our new state lay in the supremacy of the Democratic party, and that in the first battle, which meant so much to our people, it was the duty of every loyal Democrat to sink whatever personal ambition he might have, and strive faithfully for the triumph of his party.

After the election the affairs of the campaign committee were wound up, and Hon. Jesse Dunn, whose labors as chairman had contributed so much to the success of the party, resigned, and Hon. J. B. Thompson of Pauls Valley was elected as his successor. Desiring and integrity of Edward P. Hill, both as a lawyer and as a man. Mr. Hill lived for many years in Gainesville, came here in January 1884, when he was just 21 years of age, and removed from Gainesville to Indian Territory in 1901. As a young man Mr. Hill soon became one of the leaders of this bar and through his seventeen years residence here he sustained his reputation as a lawyer of pre-eminent ability. His legal attainments were recognized in 1894 by his appointment as assistant attorney general of Texas, a position which he filled with signal ability for four years. Mr. Hill was a valuable citizen of Cooke county and well and favorably known, not only in this immediate section of the state, but throughout the state. We notice that Mr. Hill is a candidate for Congress in the new state of Oklahoma. He is well fitted for such a position and will bring credit upon himself and the office, if selected. The Gainesville Bar and this community will take pride in the success of our former townsman and collaborator.

There are two Democratic papers published in Gainesville, Texas, Mr. Hill's old home. Both of these papers have been under the same management for many years. The proprietors have been personally acquainted with Mr. Hill since his boyhood, and voluntarily make the following mention of his candidacy for Congress:

"The Hesperian notices that Hon. E. P. Hill, of South McAlester, I. T., is a candidate for congress from the Fourth Congressional District in the new state.

to become a candidate for Congress, and the Democratic party having overwhelmingly triumphed at the polls, Mr. Hill tendered his resignation and in reply thereto received the following letter from Mr. Thompson:

Headquarters Oklahoma Democratic Committee.
Pauls Valley, Feb. 6, 1907.

Hon. E. P. Hill,
South McAlester, I. T.

My Dear Ed:
I am in receipt of yours of the 4th inst., and desire to thank you for the letter, and to express my sincere regrets at your resignation from the State Committee. On account of your valuable experience and long service in this capacity in Texas prior to your removal to the Indian Territory, and since your removal here, and the great interest you have always manifested in the party, your services are almost invaluable, and your association has been most pleasant and your advice most profitable. I want you to know that you carry with you, in your retirement from the committee, my very highest confidence, and I also wish to assure you of my sincere and earnest wishes for your success in the future. With my kindest regards, I beg to remain,
Very truly your friend,
J. B. Thompson,
Chairman.

The lawyers of Gainesville, Cooke county, Texas, among whom Mr. Hill lived for many years before coming to the Indian Territory, give him the following testimonial:

circles in Texas. In 1894 he was appointed one of the assistant attorney generals of Texas by Attorney General Crane, and served with distinction and ability during the administration of Governor Chas. A. Culberson, now the senior United States Senator from Texas. He was formerly a law partner of Senator Joseph W. Bailey, and during the famous Hogg and Clark controversy he was an active supporter of Governor Hogg, and served for four years as a member of the State Democratic Executive committee.

"Mr. Hill is a man of high character and integrity, well versed in public affairs, of unswerving fidelity to Democratic principles, and the people of Gainesville and Cooke county, among whom he lived for so many years, commend him to the people of his district as a man worthy of their confidence and support."

"Ed P. Hill of McAlester is a candidate for congress from the Fourth Oklahoma Congressional District, and stands an excellent chance for election. He runs on the Democratic ticket.

"Mr. Hill was a resident of this city for twenty years or more and was one of our leading citizens and attorneys. He filled several offices of public trust while a citizen here with honor to himself and credit to those who elected him. He served as city attorney some time, also as assistant co-

Captain W. H. Fisher has authorized The News to announce him for justice of the peace in Ada township, subject to the action of the Democratic primary May 23.

The Captain was raised in Dallas, Texas, where he spent the greater portion of his fifty eight years. Nine years ago he came to the territory, four years ago he came to Ada where he has been continuously engaged in contracting and building. Capt. Fisher is a life long Democrat a loyal veteran of the confederacy—last year was commander W. L. Byrd Camp, U. C. V., an exemplary citizen, a thoroughly conscientious man in all his dealings—such a man as would give universal satisfaction in the office of justice of the peace.

Edmund Hazelwood the boy from North Ada who has been laying out a 734 day fine for jumping on moving trains was released this morning after having served 534 days of his sentence, and paid $2.00 in cash fine.

Those Township Officers.
Some misunderstanding has prevailed in this section regarding the officers to be elected in townships or precincts.

Here is the straight of it. In each precinct—properly called municipal township, following the Oklahoma law—there are to be elected two justices of the peace, two constables, a township treasurer, a township assessor or trustee and a clerk. This, regardless of whether there is a town in the township.

Moreover under Oklahoma law cities of over 2,500 population are classified as cities of the first class and are entitled to a distinct township organization—two justices, two constables and an assessor. Accordingly after Ada becomes a city of the first class there will be a set of these officers for the city and another set for the Ada country township surrounding.

PERIOD OF POLITICS.
This paper contains a good deal of political matter these days.

It ought to. These are times when all patriotic people in this country should be interested in organizing the new state government. Should be interested in the adoption of the constitution in the men and their qualifications who are offering for office, all the way from the governorship down to township trustee.

The newspaper is the best agency of enlightenment in such matters. In a heavy period of politics like this political news of necessity predominates in the paper. Some may not relish so much of it but for awhile they must defer to those who do.

The columns of the other papers also teem with politics. In fact that's about all that is happening and all that people are talking about these days.

You might as well read it and talk it some, otherwise you will be odd and lonesome.

THAT crusade of The Oklahoman against impure milk for the babies is getting as sensational as that one waged by Peter Stirling.

"The Democrats of the Fourth Oklahoma District could not do a better thing than to send Ed P. Hill to congress. He is able, honorable and true as steel. His district includes Ardmore, Marietta, Sulphur and many other cities which have hundreds of former Texans as citizens, and the Register hopes to see all these 'line up' for him. If nominated he will be elected and he will be an honor to the new state of Oklahoma."—Gainesville Register.

HIS PLATFORM.

Mr. Hill submits the following declaration of principles, being the lines along which he will make his campaign for congress. He introduces some new questions into this campaign which he courageously advocates because he considers their solution vital to the welfare of the people of this district.

To the Democracy of the Fourth Congressional District:

As I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from this district, I deem it proper to give a brief statement of my views upon questions affecting the people of this district, and the solution of which will have to be determined by congress.

Disposing of national questions as issues upon which there is substantial concurrence among party Democrats, and turning to the questions which, because of our environment, I conceive to be of peculiar and vital interest and importance to this district and the Indian Territory part of the new state, I submit:

First.—Of its own volition and by its own act the Federal government has decreed the dissolution of the tribal status of the Indians of Indian Territory, and in 1901 invested the individuals of the several tribes with the full rights of citizenship. If elected to congress I shall insist that the Federal government execute to the full the obligation it assumed by surrendering absolutely and at once its supervisory control of citizenship to the state, and wherever possible its jurisdiction over property rights. I shall insist that the eighty thousand enrolled Indians thus citizenized, and who own practically all of the lands in the Indian Territory, save the town-sites, shall be turned loose by the Federal government, subject to no control or supervision, save that of the state of which they are an integral part. I shall maintain that having been invested with citizenship the Indian is entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizenship guaranteed by the Federal constitution equally with the Caucasian, just as he is expected and must assume and sustain all of its responsibilities and penalties. I hold that the perpetuation of Federal control or supervision over so large a part of our citizenship or property is subversive of the republican principles upon which our government is founded, unjust and calamitous to the Indian, and perilous to every interest of the state.

If any portion of our citizenship is incompetent to manage their own business affairs, I favor having this matter regulated by state laws giving the probate courts of our counties jurisdiction to determine this matter, thus superseding the arbitrary, inequitable and unreliable system now employed. Our own people understand conditions better than people who live in New England and other sections of the United States.

It is a notorious fact that hundreds if not thousands of the mixed blood have been entered on the rolls of the Commission as Indians of the full blood. Many of these are as capable as any other American citizen of conducting business affairs successfully, and naturally and rightfully resent the paternalistic intervention of the Federal government in their private affairs—an intervention which is based, at best, upon long range information that is always unreliable, and attended by action unconsciously delayed by red-tape methods.

Second.—I favor the immediate sale of what is commonly known as the "Segregated coal and asphalt lands," throughout the segregated district, but I am opposed to such sale to a corporation of any kind, particularly to a railroad corporation. With such possible purchasers excluded, such a sale could be made only to the Federal government or to the state of Oklahoma. Accordingly, if elected, I shall favor congressional action authorizing the sale of said lands to the state of Oklahoma at a fair and reasonable valuation, to be determined by a commission representing primarily the interest of the Indians who are the owners of the land, the state of Oklahoma, the prospective purchaser, and the Federal government, which exercises supervisory control, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized. I favor the state purchasing these lands as a school fund for the education of the children of this state. The sale of the surface and the royalties from the mines would create a splendid fund for the education of the children. If it should be determined within a reasonable time that the state will not buy these lands, I favor, and will urge, congressional action providing for the sale of the surface in tracts not exceeding 160 acres to actual settlers, the proceeds of such sale to be apportioned and paid to the Indian distributees as soon as realized.

Third.—I believe that the prosperity of the citizenship of this district, Caucasian as well as Indian, depends upon the development of our lands which are rich in agricultural possibilities. Inalienable under present law, this land is largely non-productive, either to the Indian as a source of revenue, or to the state as a taxable asset. The settlement and cultivation of this vast area will remain impossible and barren of revenue to the Indian and taxes to the state until the Federal restrictions are removed so that actual settlers can buy homes and construct permanent citizenship.

When the restrictions with which the property contributes its just share towards the support of the government, there will be an immediate increase in the value of all the property, and the settlement and development of our country will be rapid. But just so long as the Federal government shall maintain jurisdiction over our property and the present unequal and unjust conditions shall prevail, the support of county and state governments will be burdensome, and homeseekers will continue to pass through our section of the state bound for other places which do not offer so much in the way of natural advantages. I favor breaking the shackles which bind the property and citizenship of this country, and giving to our people the opportunity to develop the splendid natural resources which are around us, and the making of our new state one of the best, richest and most prosperous in the Union.

Fourth.—The Federal government now holds on deposit large sums of money to the credit of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, and these large sums will be presently augmented by other larger sums.

I favor the immediate and complete settlement of these business affairs between the Federal government and the Indians; the discharge of this trust by the government by the payment to the Indians of the last dollar due them. The Indian's present needs and necessities are infinitely more pressing than they are likely to be at any time in the future and I know of no good reason why the Indian now living should not participate in the distribution of these funds.

This money belongs to the Indians. It is doing them no good as it is. The Federal government is constantly finding excuses to spend large sums of it, as for example the hiring of a special train to deliver patents. To distribute this money to the Indians now will be helpful to them and to the country, and if elected I shall favor congressional action requiring this to be done.

Fifth.—I regard the congressman as the most important officer the people of this district will be called upon to vote for at the coming election. We enter statehood with the Federal government maintaining jurisdiction over most of the property in our district, and with conditions confronting our people the solution of which are vital to our welfare. Congressional action alone can bring relief. However wise and just our state officers may be, they will be powerless to change the conditions here, and our people in this district must look to their representative in Congress. I believe that the people of our new state are just as patriotic and intelligent as the people of any other state of this union, and so believing, I shall insist, if I am your representative, that the hand of despotism be removed, and that the sovereign people of the sovereign state of Oklahoma be accorded the same rights as the people of every other state of this Union, viz., The right to regulate and control their own internal affairs.

In conclusion, my fellow citizens, I pledge myself, if elected, to the exercise of whatever of faculties or ability I possess in the service of the people of this district and the new state. I believe that I have full appreciation of the duties and responsibilities that will devolve upon your representative in congress, and I know that I am inspired by no other ambition than to serve this people acceptably, and contribute my utmost to the development and upbuilding of the state of my adoption, and which I fully believe is destined to become, within the next two decades, one of the very greatest of the American Union. A vast amount of work will devolve upon your first representative in congress. Federal build- ings and internal improvements of various kinds, chargeable against the Federal government, must be provided. I do not assert an ability over my competitors to secure these things, but I do assure you that you can elect no one who will strive more faithfully and conscientiously to serve you.

If you approve the policies outlined, upon which I will make this race, I will thank you for your support, and will endeavor to bring to my people some substantial relief. Respectfully,
E. P. HILL.

FOR DISTRICT JUDGE.

Chambers of Atoka Announces for the Honor in the 7th.

Hon. James H. Chambers, of Atoka, who seeks the Democratic nomination for district judge in this the Seventh Judicial district, is a native of Collins county, Texas.

There born in 1870, he received his education in the neighborhood schools and in Grayson college where, finishing a four years' course, he graduated in 1893. After beginning a law course in the University of Texas Mr. Chambers, before its completion, was compelled to return home to care for his widowed mother and her farm. In 1896 he removed to the Territory and located in Atoka where he has since continuously resided and practiced law.

James H. Chambers early evinced an interest in affairs political. A delegate to that famous Hogg-Clark convention at Houston, he was an enthusiastic supporter of Hogg throughout; and he was a delegate in the convention at Dallas which nominated Chas. A. Culberson for governor. Since becoming a resident of the Territory he has been an ardent worker for every good thing for his home town and for the embryonic commonwealth at large. Having been secretary and president of the Atoka commercial club, member of the city council, and of the school board, in those positions he made a splendid record as a public spirited town builder.

For years he has been prominent in the councils of his party; was the first president of the Atoka Democratic club; was a delegate to the Ardmore and Durant Territorial conventions; is now a member of the State Democratic executive committee.

Nominated the Democratic candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention in a district outrageously gerrymandered and conceded to be Republican, yet such was the vigorous campaign Mr. Chambers waged that he was elected over a strong opponent by 213 majority. In the convention he readily took rank as a leading figure, and he labored untiringly and effectively to make the constitution the great guaranty of the people's rights that it is.

Jas. H. Chambers at home and abroad ranks as a sound, strong lawyer. He possesses to a marked degree the calm, deliberate, judicial mind. A lawyer of high standing, a man beloved of his neighbors, a thorough going Christian gentleman, a faithful worker in his party, Mr. Chambers, on the bench, would reflect credit upon the constituent counties which chose him.

It is planned to have the club rooms over the Cox-Greer-McDonald store.

GOOD BLOOD CLEANSER

Mix one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Sarsaparilla, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Take in teaspoonful doses after your meals and at bedtime. Also drink plenty of good pure water.

These ingredients can be obtained from any good drug store, and are easily mixed by shaking in a bottle.

This is said to be the simplest though safest and most powerful mixture known to purify the blood and rid the system of acids and other waste matter, which produce skin eruptions, sores, boils and other diseases.

It is recommended very highly in all Kidney and Bladder affections, overcoming the most chronic urinary difficulties.

Now is the time to take it if you wish to insure good, sound health all summer.

DEAN FOR STATE SENATOR.

Something of His Career and His Qualifications.

The News has been authorized to announce J. W. Dean, a prominent attorney of Ada, for the State Senate in Twenty-third district, composed of Pontotoc and Seminole counties. He is so well known as a worker in the local party organization that it is scarcely necessary to add his candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

J. W. Dean was born and reared on his father's farm in that old historic county of Red River, State of Texas, where he attended the common schools of the neighborhood. Later two years of employment as salesman and book-keeper were sandwiched with a course in a normal school at Cooper, Texas. Entering the University of Texas in 1901, he graduated in law in the summer of 1903. Attracted by the opportunities offered young men in the Southwest, Mr. Dean came straightway to Ada where he formed a law partnership with B. H. Epperson and has since continuously practiced his profession.

Through his faithful attention to business, his studious habits, his uniform course, as a good citizen, he has achieved an enviable standing among the professional men of the city.

Ever interested in the progress of his home town, for a long time he has held the position of secretary for the Ada commercial club. When congress was legislating for the Territories, looking to the changes statehood involves, Mr. Dean was chosen to go to Washington as a representative of Ada to look after her interests in pending legislation.

Ever since he has been old enough Mr. Dean has taken a deep interest in political affairs; he is a thorough student of questions of government, and is a firm believer in Democratic principles as the basis for the sort of government under which the people may most prosper. He has opinions on statecraft and a gifted tongue where-with to proclaim them. He has taken an active part in the organization of his party in this section. Before the transition to a county organization, Mr. Dean was the efficient secretary of the Democratic central committee of the Sixteenth recording district.

If chosen state senator from this district, Mr. Dean pledges himself to his talents and his utmost energies to the legislative work, to the end that he may reflect credit upon his constituents.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

Ordinance No. 128.

An ordinance safeguarding the crossings of the railroad tracks in the city of Ada.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Ada, Indian Territory:

Section 1. That on and after the 15th day of June, 1907, it shall be unlawful for any railroad company to propel any of its engines, cars or trains across any of the hereinafter named street crossings within the incorporated limits of the said city of Ada, between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., without first having given the danger signal at least three minutes before the said train, cars, or engines, shall cross or attempt to cross any of the hereinafter named streets.

Section 2. That the said danger signal shall be given by waving a lantern or other light, at the said crossing of said streets, for the length of time aforesaid. That the said street crossings at which said signal shall be required to be given shall be on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad where the same crosses East Main street and East Ninth street; and on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad where the same crosses West Main street, North Townsend avenue and North Broadway avenue, all of the said city of Ada, Indian Territory. That any engineer, fireman, conductor or brakeman who shall run or cause to be run, any train, cars, or engines across any of the aforesaid street crossings without first having given the danger signal above set out, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before the mayor shall be fined in any sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

Section 3. That in lieu of said danger signal, the said railroad companies shall have the right and privileges of erecting over the said street crossings, an arc light, such as is in use in the streets of the city of Ada, over the said streets' crossings. That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its publication and passage, and the date set out above, to-wit: the 15th day of June, A. D. 1907.

Passed this 15th day of April, A. D. 1907.
C. O. Barton, Mayor.
Attest: Jesse Warren, City Recorder.
